

Wicklow RFC Summer Camp 2026 T&C

August 5th - 8th 2026

Payment and Discounts

Sibling discounts are applied on checkout. This payment is non-refundable as places are reserved on a first come basis only. The camp may be cancelled or reduced on the day, in the event of bad weather.

What to bring to camp

Your child should be dressed appropriately for sport in the prevailing weather. Please bring football boots, raingear and a gum shield (no gum shield-no play policy at tackling age). Sun protection should be applied before the child arrives. Also bring a light snack for the break and plenty to drink.

Consent and Conditions

By completing the purchase online you consent and agree to the following: I give permission for my child to be photographed at summer camp and for their name to be printed if published. If weather conditions dictate, the camp may be curtailed or cancelled. The camp merchandise will be provided to each child. I accept and understand the IRFU Code of Conducts (see below) and agree that I and my child will adhere to same.

Code of Conduct

IRFU Code of Conduct for Players

1. Play for enjoyment and become part of the rugby family.
2. Respect the 'Game of Rugby' and play within the Laws of the Game.
3. Accept the referee's decision and let your captain or coach ask any relevant questions.
4. Play with control. Do not lose your temper.
5. Always do your best and be committed to the game, your team and your club.
6. Be a 'good sport'. Applaud all good play whether by your team or the opposition.
7. Respect your opponent. Treat all players as you would like to be treated. Do not 'bully' or take advantage of any player.
8. Rugby is a team sport and make sure you co-operate with your coach; team mates and members of your club.
9. Remember that the goals of the game are to have fun, improve your skills and feel good.
10. At the end of the match thank your opponents and the referee for the match.
11. Always remember that you owe a duty of care to your opponents. Tackle hard but fairly, do not intend to hurt your opponent.
12. Winning and losing is part of sport: Win with humility – lose with dignity.
13. As part of the team it is important that you attend training regularly and listen to your coach and help your team.
14. As a team sport it is important to understand that all members are important to the team!
15. Remember you are representing your team, club, family and the Game of Rugby.

IRFU Code of Conduct for Parents

1. Remember, young people play rugby for their enjoyment, not only yours.
2. Encourage your child always to play by the Laws of the Game.
3. Teach young children that honest endeavour is as important as winning, so that the result of each game is accepted without disappointment.
4. Help young people to work towards skill improvement and good sportsmanship.
5. Set a good example by applauding good play on both sides.
6. Never ridicule, humiliate or shout at young players for making a mistake or losing a match.
7. Do not place emphasis on winning at all costs.
8. Do not force an unwilling child to participate in the playing of rugby. If the child is to play, he/she will do so in good time through your encouragement.
9. Support all efforts to remove verbal & physical abuse from rugby.
10. As a spectator do not use profane language or harass referees, coaches or players.

11. Do not publicly question the referee's judgement and never their honesty.
12. Recognise the value and importance of volunteer referees and coaches.
13. Identify and acknowledge the good qualities of the Game of Rugby and uphold these values.
14. Remember you and your child's contribution to the Game of Rugby is very important to the IRFU and be proud of your contribution.
15. Understand the value of team sport and its importance.

IRFU Code of Conduct for Spectators

1. Remember that although young people play organised rugby they are not 'miniature internationals'.
2. Be on your best behaviour and lead by example. Do not use profane language or harass referees, players or coaches.
3. Applaud good play by the visiting team as well as your own.
4. Show respect for your team's opponents. Without them there would not be a match.
5. Condemn the use of violence in all forms at every opportunity.
6. Verbal abuse of players or referees cannot be accepted in any shape or form.
7. Players or referees are not fair targets for ignorant behaviour.
8. Encourage young players to play by the Laws of the Game.
9. Spectators can contribute to the enjoyment of the event and all involved.
- 10 Be proud of your club and the Game of Rugby.
